

Missionary Evaluation Information

PERSONAL INFORMATION

1. Age of you and your spouse, (Include Birth dates)
2. Have you ever been divorced?
3. Number of children and ages. (Include Birth dates)
4. Health Status/Handicaps, if any. (Be very thorough)
5. Schooling need for children.
6. Please include a family picture, if available.

SERVICE INFORMATION

1. Briefly describe your salvation experience.
2. Briefly describe your call to missions.
3. To what area of the world are you going?
 - (A) In what city will you be centering:
 - 1) Give population of that city and surrounding area (potential outreach).
 - 2) Predominate religion of that area.
 - 3) Per capita income in the area.
 - 4) Any contact for a place to live and base ministry?
 - (B) What other missionaries do you know of in that area or country?
Will you be able to work with them doctrinally?
4. Of what specific nature is your ministry?

(i.e. Mail in Bible courses, missionary assistance, preaching, church planting, evangelism, medical. Christian school, etc.)
Include all that will apply to your work.
5. From what church and/or mission board are you being sent: a) List name, address and director. B) List the name of your home church, pastor's name and phone number.

6. What other churches in this part of Texas or in this region of the U.S. support you or may support you?
7. What actual dollar amount do you need to raise as monthly support?
8. What special training or experience do you have that equips you to minister more effectively in this location and in this type of ministry?
9. Please list all past ministry experience in detail. Give dates involved and names, addresses, and phone numbers of any over you in authority.
10. When are you planning to leave for the field?
11. How will you get there: (Please list total expected cost of transportation including personal effects).
12. What is the length of your upcoming term and when will you return on your first furlough? Where will be your furlough base of operations?
13. What kind of vehicle will you need in the field? Do you already have one or will you be purchasing this vehicle in the field: What is the projected cost of this vehicle?
14. List any other special needs you foresee for your ministry.
15. Give all projected goals for your ministry. (All areas).
16. Do you plan on attending language school for that country's language, or do you already speak the language?
 - (A) Where is the language school, if needed?
 - (B) How long is language school projected to take?
 - (C) Are there other dialects in the region of ministry that will also need to be learned?
 - (D) Do you have a source of literature and bibles in that language, or are they readily available in that area?
17. Where can we contact you now?

FOR THE SPOUSE ONLY:

1. What do you feel is your spouse's strongest assist for this ministry work? What is yours?
2. What do you consider to be your greatest weakness: (For yourself and for your spouse).
3. What decisions, if any, that have been made so far would you have made differently?
4. Please list the three things that you are most afraid of in going into this mission endeavor: What are your greatest fears: Please be honest.
5. In your opinion, how much support is needed over the projected amount in order to meet adequately the needs of your family and ministry?
6. Do your parents, if still alive, support your decision together to go to the mission field? If not, why not?
7. Is your marriage right now in great shape, or are there a few things you would like to see straightened out before going to the field? (Please list the two which concern you most).
8. Have you ever changed jobs or ministries for financial reasons? If so, please give the details briefly.
9. What will be your main role or responsibility in this missions ministry?
10. Are there adequate health care facilities within a reasonable distance from where you will be living? At this time, are there any reasons why you would need to be near a health care facility?