

Am I A Murderer

Matthew 5.21-26

I. What Was Taught _____ the Law

Apply: My _____ are not the only consideration when I evaluate my holiness. I cannot evaluate my holiness based on a list of _____ and _____

II. The _____ Aspect of the Law Deals with the _____

Apply: The righteousness expected of Jesus' disciples is a righteousness that does not _____ others, it does not _____ others, and it does not even have _____ thoughts towards others. Am _____ a murderer according to this teaching?

III. Reconciliation is Important because...

A. ... anger left unsettled effects your relationship with _____

Apply: No matter how _____ the timing may be, I should _____ take steps to reconcile with someone that is in conflict with me because my relationship with others is _____ in my relationship with God

A. ... anger left unsettled will multiply the _____

Apply: It is of the utmost importance for me to be reconciled with _____ immediately. The consequences may only get worse if I _____
