

Adultery Abounds

Matthew 5.31-32

I. The Pharisees taught a _____ divorce _____

Apply: The Pharisees & scribes taught that Deut. 24.1-4 was a _____ way to divorce for various reasons and still be righteous in God's sight.

II. The OT taught _____ divorce leads to _____

1. The ideal for marriage is one man and one woman until _____ separates them. (Matt. 19.4-6)
2. In OT Israel, marriage could be terminated by several sexual sins (fornication) because those sins were punishable by _____. (Lev. 20.10 ff)
3. Just because fornication occurred, death was never the only option. (2 Samuel 12:13)
4. At some point _____ became a viable alternative for dissolving a marriage where fornication had occurred.
 - a. Jeremiah 3.6-8
 - b. This was a _____ way to end a marriage that would have been terminated by _____ otherwise.
 - c. Matthew 1:19 (Also Deut. 22:22-29)
5. Because of the hardness of man's heart, God knew that divorce for improper reasons would occur. Deut. 24.1-4
 - a. Something besides _____
 - b. The woman is _____ if she remarries
 - c. Returning to the 1st husband after the 2nd is an _____
 - d. The woman is allowed of the LORD to _____

Apply: Deut. 24.1-4 speaks of how _____ is the result of _____ terminated marriages.

III. Jesus _____ the _____ teaching

Apply: Divorce for any reason other than fornication is _____ and results in _____

Adultery Abounds

Matthew 5.31-32

I. The Pharisees taught a _____ divorce _____

Apply: The Pharisees & scribes taught that Deut. 24.1-4 was a _____ way to divorce for various reasons and still be righteous in God's sight.

II. The OT taught _____ divorce leads to _____

1. The ideal for marriage is one man and one woman until _____ separates them. (Matt. 19.4-6)
2. In OT Israel, marriage could be terminated by several sexual sins (fornication) because those sins were punishable by _____. (Lev. 20.10 ff)
3. Just because fornication occurred, death was never the only option. (2 Samuel 12:13)
4. At some point _____ became a viable alternative for dissolving a marriage where fornication had occurred.
 - a. Jeremiah 3.6-8
 - b. This was a _____ way to end a marriage that would have been terminated by _____ otherwise.
 - c. Matthew 1:19 (Also Deut. 22:22-29)
5. Because of the hardness of man's heart, God knew that divorce for improper reasons would occur. Deut. 24.1-4
 - a. Something besides _____
 - b. The woman is _____ if she remarries
 - c. Returning to the 1st husband after the 2nd is an _____
 - d. The woman is allowed of the LORD to _____

Apply: Deut. 24.1-4 speaks of how _____ is the result of _____ terminated marriages.

III. Jesus _____ the _____ teaching

Apply: Divorce for any reason other than fornication is _____ and results in _____